4XEM HDMI 4k/2K EXTENSION CABLE Male/Female 15ft

Part- 4XHDMIEXT15

4XEM's HDMI 4K/2K Extension cable is an optimized device to extend pre-existing HDMI cable to get that extra bit of length to connect your networks. Any HDMI supported device is compatible with this cable. Due to this the cable is suited for a variety of set-ups, from gaming to satellite TV connections. The cable has been made with gold plated connectors for corrosion resistance as well as improved signal strength stability.
With the ability to support 4K displays this cable is a great addition to your HDMI devices.

Problem it solves: Make what was out of reach within your reach with 4XEM's HDMI Extension cable.
